January 11th - Ken Schafer

UPDATE!

Mark Your Calendar!

Saturday, October 5th

3 PM to 7 PM

An afternoon of dancing and music at the OD Pavilion with other shag clubs. DJ Jim Bruno.

ACSC 40th Anniversary & OISC

Join with your fellow OISC members on Thursday, September 19th, to help the Association of Carolina Shag Clubs (ACSC) celebrate its 40th anniversary. Wear your OISC, or SOS, logo apparel and enjoy the sights and sounds of a day at the SOS Fall Migration. We'll meet at Pirate's Cove at 1:30 PM where we'll spend a little time dancing and enjoying the music, then move on to other venues along main street.

November Dance Schedule Change

Due to a scheduling conflict with the VFW, the November dance will now be held on Saturday, November 2nd!

'Teach a Step' Starting in October!

Once/quarter, starting with the October dance, plan to arrive at the dance by 6:00 PM and learn an 'easy' shag step taught by one of our member couples. The lesson will begin promptly at 6:15 PM and last about 15 minutes. Arriving by 6:00 PM allows time for the dance registration process.

Ken and Linda Schafer have graciously agreed to coordinate this activity for the club. If you have an interest in teaching a step, please reach out to Ken & Linda at lkschafer@atmc.net.

Through the National Fiddlers Association our club is properly and legally licensed to present copyrighted music.

SURVEY RESULTS

Recently, the Ocean Islanders Shag Club conducted a survey of its members regarding beach parties and other possible events. There was a consensus that the members like having the option to attend at least two beach parties per year, and the preferred days for those parties are, in order of preference, Saturday, Friday, and Sunday.

We also asked for suggestions for other club events and received some excellent ideas. These included having a picnic in a park, having holiday parties such as Valentine's Day and New Year's Eve, holding combined events with other shag clubs, having theme nights such as Hawaiian or Western, going on an evening cruise, and having a bowling/pizza night. The Board will be discussing possible events that we can add to our schedule.

If you like one or more of these ideas, please consider volunteering to help organize it! Since there are a limited number of Board members, we could definitely use help in finding locations, coming up with ideas, making phone calls, etc. If you have any suggestions on contacts and locations for special events, please email us at ncoisc@gmail.com with your ideas.

We love our little club and want to continue growing and adding to our opportunities to enjoy shag music and shag dancing, and, most of all, to have fun.

SEPTEMBER BEACH PARTY FUN IN THE SUN!

Yes, believe it or not, there was sunshine, and we had an absolutely wonderful time at our September beach party. After rain earlier in the day, and continued threats of rain, the late afternoon delivered great weather; moderate temperature, low humidity, a light breeze, and plenty of sunshine.

DJ Randy Sherrill kept attendees dancing in the sand with great music, and the Sunset Beach pier kept everyone 'hydrated' and full with their food and drink selections. Thank you one and all who were in attendance for making the afternoon such fun!

Take a look at some pictures of the beach scene by clicking anywhere in the collage on the right.

SHAG DANCE ETIQUETTE

Every so often, we like to publish information on shag dance etiquette for those who may not be aware. The following is good information to know to help assure that everyone has a very pleasant experience on the dance floor.

1. Dance in the direction of the wood grain in the floor and stay in your slot as if you are dancing on a beach towel. However while dancing the gentleman must step aside or off the beach towel so the lady can dance across the beach towel (or the dance floor).
2. Dance small. Don't dance all over the floor or in circles.
3. When asking a person to dance, do so politely. It is equally acceptable for a lady to ask a man as it is for a man to ask a lady.
4. At the end of the dance thank your partner and escort your partner back to his/her table.
5. If you want to dance with someone who is obviously with a date or partner it is polite to ask the date or partner if they mind if you dance with their partner.
6. Typically it is good form to accept an invitation to dance, but if you don't want to dance, say, "No thank you", politely. It is the polite thing to do if you say "No thank you" that you do not dance with anyone during that dance.
7. If someone says "No thank you" do not be persistent, take them at their word.
8. It is impolite to correct your partner or offer instruction on the dance floor.
9. It's a fairly accepted practice that when a collision occurs on the dance floor, apologize, even if it wasn't your fault.
10. Shaggers and line dancers may dance to the same song. Be respectful of other dancers.
11. Step off the dance floor if you're not dancing.
12. If dancing with a less experienced partner, dance at the level your partner can handle. And do not criticize your less experienced dancer.
13. Leaders, if you must count and give verbal leads, speak softly enough so only you and your partner can hear.
14. The dance floor is for dancing so all drinks should be left at the table or the bar area.
15. Dance as if no one is watching and have fun. Live, laugh, love and by all means, Dance.
