Volunteer Opportunity!

Do you have a background in communications, secretarial skills and/or expertise in social media? Do you have experience drafting newsletters? If the answer is yes, please consider volunteering for the new communications committee. Please respond to Lori Setzer at lsetzerrph@gmail.com or 336-971-9791 by June 15th.

As our club continues to grow, communication becomes critical to keep all of our members informed. So far communication has fallen on the shoulders of a few people in our club. We would like to set up a committee to handle communications to include the monthly newsletter, social media posts, posts to other websites like ACSC and local community websites, emails and dance flyers.

New Committee Formed

OISC now has a Dance Volunteer Committee. The purpose of this committee is to establish, maintain, and administer a volunteer program to fill the various roles that are necessary for OISC to manage regular club dance events throughout the year to a high standard of service.

Committee members are Chris Gaither, Debbie & Donald Schnaars, Trish & Marty Wimsatt, and Linda Zimmer. Scott Keegan is the Board liaison.

The committee will be reaching out to members over the course of time to help fill the various volunteer roles needed to host OISC's dance events. Please be respectful of their time, as they will yours, as they go about their work.

Please offer your thanks to them for their willingness to be a part of this key club committee.

Through the National Fastdance Association our club is properly and legally licensed to present copyrighted music.

Southern Comfort 26 Park and Party

By Jim Breedlove

Pam and I, along with six other members of the Ocean Islanders Shag Club traveled to Columbia, SC for the 26th annual Southern Comfort Park and Party with the Palmetto Shag Club. We, along with Rae and Gary Matthews, were able to go a day early for the pre-party dance at the local VFW on Thursday. The DJ made sure that the dance floor was never empty.

Friday morning after breakfast was a pool day, recovering from all the dancing the night before, and the rest of our Ocean Islanders group (Laura and Mike Spivey, Robin Allman, and Jack Passalugo) arrived that afternoon. The theme was Under the Sea, and the party never stopped. The hospitality room was open and the dance floor was always full. The open bar was there to help the people that were a little hesitant to hit the dance floor. The club provided heavy hors d'oeuvres that provided sustenance for the festivities that awaited us in the main ballroom. The DJs played to the audience, and the floor was full of happy dancers.

Saturday was a fun-filled day as well, beginning with a line-dance class at 10 (Brenda Taylor) and a shag class at 11 (Jackie and Charlie), followed immediately by a pool party. Unfortunately, the Singing Coconuts were not able to make an appearance this year's event because they were in concert with the Blue Man Group, but the Big Kahuna and his Blonde-Haired Singing Surfers Band entertained us with songs of old and free shooters for all. After a short break, we all lined up back at the hospitality room for more shooters, a light snack, and some warm-up dancing before we headed to the main ballroom for dancing and a buffet dinner.

Each night, there was a dance demo. We were treated to a dance by Charlie and Jackie on Friday evening and by Junior Shaggers (Gracie Pandure & Billy West) on Saturday evening. The Palmetto Shag Club did an outstanding job organizing and coordinating this event. There was never a dull moment. A good time was had by all! We had the opportunity to greet old friends - including some from other local shag clubs, and make some new ones. Last year, we attended on our own, but this year was even better because so many of our fellow OISC members were able to attend. Pam and I plan on making this one of our annual events, and we hope many of you will join us. See you on the dance floor!
